

Author guidelines

Authors wishing to submit a paper should send a Word or PDF copy to centro.sraffa@uniroma3.it and specify `wp_submission` in the e-mail subject.

Submitted papers will be anonymously refereed. As a general rule, acceptance or rejection will be communicated within the end of the month following submission (except for papers sent in August and December).

Papers will be accepted which correspond to the Centro Sraffa's general aims of research, as specified in the Statement, and respect international standards of scientific quality.

Accepted papers should be written on A4 size, with margins 30 mm, using 1.15 line spacing (or 15 pts), text justified on both sides and Times New Roman font 12 pt (or similar). Notes should be at the bottom of pages, numbered consecutively, single-line spacing, font size 10. Pages should be numbered consecutively. The first page should be organized as in the example. Author(s) contact information (postal and e-mail addresses) should be at the end of the paper, after the bibliographic references. Bibliographic references should be given according to the usual standards of scientific journals.

English-language revision of accepted papers will be responsibility of the authors.
